

Christian

I

I am a Christian.

What my faith means to me is that there is hope when things go wrong.

I practise my faith by going to church, praying and reading the Bible every day, and fellowship with other Christians. I also celebrate Christmas and Easter.

It is quite easy to practice my faith